

Policy:Remanded Clients D11Effective:March 2001Revised:December 2022

MISSION STATEMENT

Adult Custody Services is committed to providing professional practices that respect human rights and ensure safety for all. To be successful we will deliver fair practices, incorporate transparent policies and procedures, ensure independent quality assurance processes, and provide program access that allows for educational, cultural, traditional and faith-based services as well as mental wellness and community re-entry assistance.

PURPOSE

To establish procedural standards for the management of Remanded persons.

LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY

N.B Corrections Act.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all employees of the Adult Custody Services division of the Department of Justice and Public Safety.

POLICY GUIDELINES

Remanded clients may require close supervision

Remanded clients are normally held in custody to:

- ensure appearance in court
- to keep the public safe
- maintain confidence in the administration of justice given the gravity of the offence
- be housed until surety or bail can be provided.

PROCEDURE

Security risk Remand clients may be considered security risks

Client placement

Superintendent or designate using the classification process has the discretion to move a remand to a less secure environment or classification for operational or medical reasons

Restricted Movement

Movements within the institution are restricted and observed

Federal Clients

Federal Clients remanded to provincial institutions shall remain in a provincial institution, unless given permission to return to a federal facility, by the Director of Correctional Services – Correctional Service Canada or designate.

Charges

Client charges before the courts will not be the sole indicator of expected behavior.

Outside of Institution

Remanded clients are not permitted outside the security envelope of the institution without adequate supervision

RELATED POLICY

D10 Maximum Security clients F1 Classification Adult Institutional Policy Manual N.B.